Welcome To Goodnow!

You belong @ your library during National Library Week, April 8-14

Message from the director:

Esmé Green

Whether you are a job seeker looking for resources to land a new job, a parent looking for free activities for children or a student searching for your next favorite book, you belong @ your library.

Libraries have historically served as our nation's great equalizers of knowledge. The strength of libraries has always been the diversity of their collections and commitment to serving all people. This National Library Week, join our nation's libraries and librarians by celebrating the place where we all belong.

The Goodnow Library is celebrating National Library Week by hosting a variety of programming, including "fine forgiveness week," where materials returned late will not be assessed fines. Goodnow will also be celebrating National Library Workers Day on Tuesday the 13th, with a "thank you note" station set up for patrons to share how the library staff has made a difference in their lives. Library staff will also be giving away bookmarks, replacing library cards, hosting a drop in craft for kids and more.

So, mark your calendars and tell your friends!

ALL PROGRAMS MADE POSSIBLE THROUGH THE GENEROSITY OF THE FRIENDS OF THE GOODNOW LIBRARY

Lego Display in 2nd Floor Display Case

Greetings – my name is Robert Gilliam. Last time I checked, I was 18 years old and I have always rather liked Legos. My mother got me involved the volunteer program at the library and that is how I got my start helping out. I thought it might help the library get people to come to and donate Lego sets to the Lego program so I set up some of my Legos in a display hoping to get people's attention. The Legos that are now on display include some custom Legos and the best of 18 years of Lego building. Although I don't play with them anymore they are impressive models on their own so I have kept them around. I hope you will go give them a look and I hope you enjoy.

If you need me, you can find me tearing through a book on my Kindle or online with my friends playing all sorts of newfangled video games. I can be found on Facebook and contacted at mrqilliam94@gmail.com (because all the clever email names were taken.)

Interested in LEGO's? Check out our online calendar for LEGO Club meetings!

ARTIST STATEMENT:

My watercolor painting is an expression of my appreciation of nature. I am drawn to seascapes and have a particular fondness for islands. The sea, sand, dunes and sky have always been creative inspiration for me, as well as my ultimate source of relaxation and rejuvenation. The edge of the sea has always been the place I best connect with myself and find a sense of fulfillment. My goal as an artist is to provide the viewer with the same sense of inner peace that I experience while walking the beach or sitting on the sand and looking out to sea.

The Bookies Book Group

The "BOOKIES" will meet again on Tuesday, April 17, to discuss Cakes and Ale, originally published in 1930 by British author W. Somerset Maugham. This little jewel of a novel is noted for its candor, warmth and humor and introduces Rosie, one of the author's most lovable and appealing characters. Place your bets for all the 'cakes and ale' you can enjoy and come to the Book Discussion to share the bounty.

Feel free to ask for a copy of the book at the Circulation Desk. We hope you may attend and enjoy a lively, informal discussion. This looks like a book we bet will provoke interesting responses!
