Coffee comes to the Goodnow

Thanks to the Goodnow Library Foundation and the efforts of staff, we now offer coffee at the library. The newly-minted coffee cart is located on the second floor across from our popular study rooms. During the installation

Joe Bausk inaugurates the Keurig

on Thursday morning, one patron declared, "This library is officially the best library in the world!" We hope you will agree and come see for yourself. We have started with a sampling of regular, flavored, decaf and teas. If you have a favorite, please leave us a note in the suggestion box so we can keep in stock for you

This is a pilot project sponsored by the Goodnow Library Foundation and came about as a result of the focus groups it has held for various groups during the past year. The idea of having coffee in the library came up repeatedly, so, in cooperation with library staff, the Foundation decided to give it a try. The cart, Keurig machine and other accessories were paid for with a donation from the Foundation, but ongoing coffee costs will be covered by a $1 charge per “pod.” This will be an honor system, so one measure of success, besides use, will be people’s willingness to pay for their caffeine fix.

Don’t forget to browse while you are here. We will feature book and magazine displays as part of the initiative as well. For starters, our paperback bestseller collection will be moved from its current location in the Fiction section to a display adjacent to the Browse & Brew, and we will place copies of some of our favorite magazines within reach as well.

As always, we welcome your thoughts and feedback as we try new things.

The new “Browse & Brew” coffee station has comfortable seating and books on display.

See you at the library,

ESMÉ

Coffee, coffee, coffee
Praise the strength of coffee,
Early in the morn we rise with thoughts of only thee.
Served fresh or reheated
Dark by thee defeated,
Brewed black by perk or drip or instantly.

Adult Book Groups

"The Bookies" Book Discussion Group

The Bookies meet once again on Tuesday, May 20, at 7 pm to discuss the fictional title, The Art Forger, by B.A. Shapiro, published in 2012.

The tale of this bestseller blends fact with fiction, depicting artist, Claire Roth, who is enlisted to paint a copy of a Degas masterpiece stolen among other masterworks in the famous Gardner Museum heist in Boston nearly 25 years ago. As the mystery unfolds, we discover that one forgery leads to another... the Bookies will just have to forge ahead to uncover the genuine literary qualities revealed through the many layers of paint and deceit.

At our last meeting in April, we took on the ladies of the American Revolution in the title, Founding Mothers, by Cokie Roberts. When the chips were down, we agreed the women truly helped make the Revolution possible. Though Roberts account was lively and detailed, we had some battles with how she fielded all her maneuvers.

We're looking for some more interested members to join in our always enjoyable discussions. Please feel free to inquire and pick up the latest book, The Art Forger, at the Circulation Desk. Copies are now available to check out.

The Books in Bloom Book Group

Do you love to read? Do you enjoy arranging fresh flowers or silk flowers? Would you like to combine your two interests and share them with a group? We are a new Book Discussion/Flower Arranging group that meets on the 2nd Friday of each quarter at 10:30-12 noon in the Conference Room at the Goodnow Library.

Next up, we will make a group arrangement based on Gifts from the Sea by Anne Morrow Lindbergh on Friday, July 11th.

Please bring a silk or fresh flower and we will create the arrangement together!

Books will be ordered by Maureen Hines, Group Leader, and will be available at the Goodnow Library. Just bring yourself, your creativity, and a sense of fun to the meeting. We will share a love of books and a love of arranging flowers--No expertise is needed.

This program is free and sponsored by the Goodnow Library.

Hope to see you there!
