Welcome to Goodnow

Message from the director:

Library Director
Esmé Green

October 20, 2012 was a night to remember. The newly-minted Goodnow Library Foundation held its first fundraising event—a “sesquicentennial gala”—at the library.

The Gala was the first-ever event of its kind at the Goodnow Library. Because of the generosity of our community, more than 200 of your fellow Sudbury residents enjoyed an evening of music, food, laughter and community-building.

At the Gala, we enjoyed performances by Lincoln-Sudbury RHS a cappella and jazz musicians, and celebrated the past as we viewed Goodnow’s historic collections and displays, and even heard from Mr. Goodnow himself (played by Hal Cutler, a Goodnow descendant). Now, we look to the future.

The money taken in from tickets, donations and the auction will provide an excellent start to the Foundation's year-long effort to raise funds for projects in the areas of children's space, technology, community space and historical archives. The Foundation also hopes to create a significant endowment to keep these and other programs vibrant into the future.

Goodnow Sesquicentennial Committee

The library opened its doors almost 150 years ago—April 4, 2013 will be the exact date—and we want to make 2013 a year of celebrating the Library with events and programming of all kinds.

An informal, get-acquainted meeting will be held on Thursday, November 15th at 7:30 p.m. in the Historical Room of the library with those who have indicated an interested in serving on the Goodnow Sesquicentennial Committee. We will be brainstorming ways to celebrate the 150th birthday of the Library, and making a list of organizations and people who we would like to invite to be involved in planning. Please email Esmé if you are interested in participating. We look forward to hearing your ideas! And please, spread the word.

See you at Goodnow!

Esmé

Adult Book Clubs

"The Bookies" Book Discussion Group Tuesday, December 11, at 6:30 pm

The "Bookies" met to discuss The Red Garden by Alice Hoffman in October. As one of our members remarked, the author planted a clever 'fairy tale' for adults. Her story might have been 'in the red garden', but the Bookies were 'in the black' by the time we finished praising her fine novel. As a bonus, we also discussed the 1959 film, On the Beach, with Gregory Peck and Ava Gardner. The subject of nuclear extermination was bleak, but the "Bookies", of course, survived all bets!

The "Bookies" next title is 84, Charing Cross Road by Helene Hanff. Published in 1970, it chronicles the New York author's 20 year correspondence with a British book dealer. If you care for a briskly and keenly written character study of friendship in the place and time of post-World War II, then you'll certainly enjoy this book. Rare and finely crafted books themselves are a feature within this warm and rich tale.

Feel free to pick up a copy of the book at the Circulation Desk. On this unique occasion, the "Bookies" will view the film based on the book, starring Anne Bancroft and Anthony Hopkins, followed by a lively discussion of the book and film.

Books in Bloom Book Group Friday, November, 10:30 am

Do you love to read? Do you enjoy arranging fresh flowers or silk flowers? Would you like to combine your two interests and share them with a group? We are a new Book Discussion/Flower Arranging group that meets on the 2nd Friday of each month at 10:30-12 noon in the Small Conference Room at the Goodnow Library. Our goal is to choose a book to discuss each month and then to interpret it with individual flower arrangements (fresh or silk). The arrangements are made by you at home and are brought to the meeting: they can be symbolic of the characters or themes in the book.

Books will be ordered by Maureen Hines, Group Leader, and will be available at the Goodnow Library. Just bring yourself, your creativity, and a sense of fun to the meeting. We will share a love of books and a love of arranging flowers--No expertise is needed. This program is free and sponsored by the Goodnow Library. Hope to see you there!

November's title is: State of Wonder by Ann Patchett

The Goodnow Book Club for Grown up Girls Monday, November 5, 7 pm at the Fairbank Community Center

Interested in reading smart, fun, modern fiction for women? Want to get together with other like-minded souls to talk about books? Why not try the newest book club in town: The Goodnow Book Club for Grown Up Girls, jointly sponsored by the Goodnow Library and the Sudbury Park & Recreation Department.

November's Title is Before I Go to Sleep by Jennifer Haigh

Books will be available behind the circulation desk of the Goodnow Library. Register with the Park and Recreation Department at 978-443-1092, <http://recreation.sudbury.ma.us> or recreation@sudbury.ma.us

The Friends of the Goodnow Library Present...

Marcia and Mark Wilson Present: “Who’s Watching You? Owls of the World”

Everyone loves owls! Yet, how many of us have ever seen a live owl up close?

Join naturalist Marcia Wilson and photographer Mark Wilson in sharing their passion for owls! “Who’s Watching You? Owls of the World” will introduce you to the owls of New England.

Mark and Marcia will share the field marks, signs and naturalist’s skills that you can use to find wild owls without disturbing them, while introducing you to six live owls up close.

Mark and Marcia Wilson are a charismatic team who teach, study, photograph and share their passion for the natural world. Each has nurtured a fascination for nature since childhood. Both have biology degrees and share a keen interest in birds. The program is certain to be a hoot for one and all.

November – S.W.E.E.T. Organization

S.W.E.E.T. Plant Photography Contest

The Sudbury Weed Education and Eradication Team (SWEET) brings attention to the harm invasive plants do to private, historic and conservation properties. Established in 2009, the small but effective resident volunteer group stages removal of invasive plants in various town sites including the Lincoln Sudbury High School wooded property, King Phillip Woodland and several local parks. They facilitate an invasive Garlic Mustard pull called, "Defeat it and Eat it" each spring with resident participation and Town of Sudbury support. Group efforts have been funded by the Sudbury Assabet Concord Wild and Scenic Rivers Small Grants Program along with the SUASCO CISMA (Cooperative Invasive Species Management Area), and a Math Works End -of -Year Donations Program. The group is moving towards full non-profit status this year.

The display will consist of photographs from various age and skill categories that picture sites in the Sudbury, Assabet or Concord River watershed being affected by invasive species, detailed close ups which could be used for education, or photo collage developed with digital software. To learn more about the Sudbury, Assabet and Concord Watershed areas visit www. Sudbury\_Assabet\_Concord.org. To learn more about invasive plant species, visit CISMA-Suasco.org, www.newenglandwild/learn.org or www.massaudubon.org/Invasive\_Species/plants.php

Photographs will be installed at the library on November 1, 2012. A "people's choice" award voting box will be set up on the table; please stop by to cast a vote for your favorites! Winning photographs will be used (with photographers' permission) for S.W.E.E.T. educational/public outreach projects and will be awarded ribbons.

To contact the group, send message to SWEETinvasives@gmail.com or contact Rebecca at (978)505-1301.

Getting More from Your Library

Inter-Library Loan Requests

Have you ever had materials requested and not been able to get them through our Minuteman Library Network? Perhaps the materials had gone missing, were damaged, or were not eligible for loan.

Through the Reference Department we are happy to try to get these items for you from a source outside the MLN. The Reference staff will collect pertinent information to proceed with a search tailored to your needs, whether that involves searching the Virtual Catalog with its many Massachusetts networks (we can show you how to do this yourself, if you desire) or continuing to a nation-wide OCLC search and request.

Article Requests

Have you come across an article reference and would like to get the entire article? Our Reference Department would be happy to try to locate the article for you. The Reference staff may be able to find the article through sources we can show you, some of which you may be able to access yourself. If further search is necessary, we have a form so the request can be sent for a specialized search through the Boston Public Library. When articles are found and sent to us electronically, we have the option of attaching them to an email delivery for your convenience.

Stop in at the Reference Desk with any questions or the next time you have an item you would like us to pursue! You may also email sudill@minlib.net with requests.
