Goodnow Children's Room Renovations Start October 7!

$25,000 Donation Jump-Starts Changes

Beginning Monday, Oct. 7, the Children's Room at the Goodnow Library will be closed for a makeover that includes new paint, carpet, furniture, toys and more to create an exciting new community space. It will reopen on Wednesday, Oct. 16.

During renovations Children's Room materials will not be available for check-out or for browsing, but patrons can still make returns. The work will not interfere with normal library services for adults and young adults, however meeting room programs will be relocated for that week. Before the closure, children's staff can certainly help patrons place holds on other minuteman network library materials that they can pick up during that time.

The makeover was jump-started by an initial $25,000 donation from an anonymous Sudbury couple to the Goodnow Library Foundation, a non-profit organization that funds ongoing capital projects for the library.

This donation will fund Phase I of the renovations that include a dramatic new play area, a new computer arrangement, and booth seating in the brick Octagon area.

Cream and slate blue paint will replace the current gray paint, with complementary carpeting. Colors reflecting nature – greens, blues, browns and coppers – will create a warm setting, with whimsical pops of sunset oranges, reds and golds. The town will provide paint and carpet. The Goodnow Library Foundation will fund the rest of the project.

According to Children’s Librarian Kat Liddle, “We could not be more thrilled about this extremely generous donation to the library. The changes that are being made go beyond structural changes to the room; they go to the heart of what the children’s library should do: promote early literacy, encourage parent/child interactions, and foster a lifelong love of reading at an early age.”

She added, “Patrons will be able to snuggle up with their children and read a favorite book in new seating, find and browse new books easier, and enjoy a new schedule of weekly and weekend programming.”

Barbara Pryor, Goodnow Library Foundation president, says that the foundation hopes to raise an additional $25,000 to $35,000 for the Children’s Room from the Oct. 19 “A Toast to The Goodnow” wine tasting event

Proceeds from this event will fund Phase II of the Children’s Room renovations which include purchase of new shelving, colorful art work, and additional furnishings, including chairs, display cases, an aquarium, and a variety of educational toys.

To make a donation toward the Children’s Room work or to purchase tickets for the wine-tasting event, contact the Goodnow Library Foundation at: development@goodnow-foundation.org, or phone (978) 639-3224.

“A Toast to The Goodnow” tickets are $55 per person. A selection of wines and craft beers will be available, along with food and musical entertainment. The event runs from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at the Goodnow Library.

See you at the library,

"The Bookies" Book Discussion Group

The "Bookies" met in September to discuss Lost Continent, a travel book by Bill Bryson and Sailing Alone around the Room, a book of poetry by Billy Collins. As it happened, the two titles tripped the trigger of a well-versed repartee, doubling our party winnings. Bryson's book sauntered in as a small winner, while the measure of Collin's poetry was over the meter.

Next round, we're doubling the stakes once more, with two books. One is a short novel, Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston. Published in 1937, Janie Crawford, a young black woman is determined to live a challenging and vital life against conventions. This well-recognized story has influenced many writers, including Alice Walker. The second title is a short novella, The Pearl, by John Steinbeck, published in 1947. A marvelous fable of a diver who discovers a large pearl and its effects on his family and neighbors.

Copies of each of these titles are available at the Circulation Desk. Feel free to just ask and we'll deliver. The "Bookies" next discussion will be Tuesday, October 29 at 7 pm.

IN THE MCQUEEN GALLERY

October in the McQueen Gallery: Ms. Maggie Hsu (W.W. King)

Ms. Hsu sees photography as holding infinity in the tip of her shutter finger, and eternity in a second. She is an avid fine art photographer who uses her camera as a brush to paint and express the beauty of her vision. With her knack for seeing things that usually go unnoticed, she has captured many close-up, floral, landscape, architectural, and sport pictorials. She strives for the viewer to sense and absorb the pattern, texture and sometimes abstract nature of her compositions. In fact, after seeing one of her exhibits, a poet has repeatedly asked her for prints of her images as inspiration to write his poetry.

Some of her recent highlights include:

- Awarded the 2013 Willa Schmidt Memorial Award for Creative Achievement from Gateway Camera Club.
- Received an Honor Award for her submission “Vermont Sugarhouse” at the juried 2012 Ocean State Exhibition.
- Ms. Hsu’s photography was selected by the MFA in Boston for its 2009 & 2007 art auction fundraiser.
- Her images of Greece were requested by Harvard University’s Modern Greek Studies Program to be shown to its students.
- Awarded the coveted NECCC medal for Best New England Entrant in the juried 2008 4th Annual Ocean State Color Projected Image Exhibition.
- Her image of a New Orleans band was published in the November 2008 issue of the widely read photography magazine “Shutterbug”.
- In March 2008, three of her images were selected for a Museum of Fine Arts Boston juried exhibition celebrating female artists.
- She was a finalist in the Boston Globe Photo Contest in 2006.

Previous Exhibitions: Harvard University; Greater Lynn International Exhibition; Wellesley, Lincoln, Sudbury & Winchester Libraries.

Cons: Occasional connectivity issues, such as the app functioning when the cell phone is connected over wifi, and having to turn off wifi and use only cell phone towers with the app.

Overall: Extremely handy for anyone frequently involved with events. Recommend at 4.5 out of 5 stars.

Adult Volunteer Opportunities

Would you be willing to assist the library in sorting and shelving its incoming materials delivery? We are looking for someone with basic computer skills, good organizational skills, and an interest in helping us serve the public in a vital way. The process takes about 3-4 hours start to finish, from the point when our delivery arrives on Fridays (usually between 11:30 and 12:30), and involves the following: emptying bins of library materials (usually between 10 and 20 bins) onto carts, processing materials which have been reserved by Sudbury library patrons, and filing all of these alphabetically on our reserve shelves. There is some standing, sitting, and moving of loaded, wheeled carts involved. Staff will train, and are available throughout the process to answer questions.
