A Note from the Director

This past weekend, the Goodnow Library kicked off its sesquicentennial celebration by holding an open house on Saturday, with carriage rides, music, food, and of course, birthday cake. Several hundreds of patrons of all ages came to join in the fun. We are so grateful to the many people, organizations and businesses who donated their time, effort and goods.

The delicious food enjoyed was possible thanks to generous donations from many local eateries, including Bertucci's, Dunkin Donuts, Oh Goodie!, Paani, Prime Grill, Stop & Shop, Subway, Sudbury Farms, Sudbury Pizza Place and Whole Foods. The beautiful cake, pictured here, was handmade by Judy Honens.

We would also like to thank

Board of Selectmen, Maureen Valente, Maryanne Bilodeau, Representative Tom Conroy, Robert DeLeo, Speaker of the House, and Governor Deval Patrick for conferring proclamations and citations upon the Goodnow Library on the occasion of its sesquicentennial.

The many activities for children would not have been possible without the generous support of Salem Five Bank who supplied balloons with our special 150th logo. Karen Baldwin and her draft horse, Molly, brought joy to everyone, no matter the age. Andrew Hershfield was our enthusiastic temporary tattoo artist. Jessica Bendel and Amber Comeau, who sponsored a craft for tweens and teens, and Martha Stone and her committee, who brought the Off the Wall Mural project to life.

Our library “storywalks,” which highlighted the art and architecture of the library were enlivened considerably by Helen Marie Casey, Kevin Latady, Mary Pinto, Phyllis Cullinane, Hal and Betsey Cutler, and librarians Randy LeSage, Brenda Musser-Castino and Karen Tobin.

The day of music was brought to you by many people, including the Clyde Country Express; Ellen Given, flutist; pianist Rick Gangopadhyay; the L-S Violin Ensemble, Noyes Elementary School Students, and the Acafellas, Accent and the Musicgals.

The events of the weekend would not have happened at all without the help of an extraordinary group of women: Nancy Hershfield was there every step of the way, defining the message and goals of the celebration and working tirelessly on the marketing and public relations; Lela Digenis is responsible for every aspect of the oral history project and many other less glamorous details like getting napkins and table cloths; Sophia Kambanis organized and all of the food donations and more; Christiana Athenassiou put together the time capsule and organized the team of volunteers; Elin Neiterman and Mary Ellen Hoover created the amazing 150 year time line; Martha Stone dreamed up and then made real the community painting of the library in her “Off the Wall Mural” project; Marianne Büttner assembled the amazing collection of musicians; Susan Pettit and her team put together the publicity; and Jeanne Lavine and the rest of the Friends of the Goodnow Library provided the lovely and elegant Sunday afternoon tea and Civil War era Salon featuring Libby Franck.

We would also like to thank the town departments who assisted us with the many items we needed to hold this event: the Sudbury Police, Fire, Facilities, Senior Center, Park and Recreation, and Highway Departments. The Town Manager, Assistant Town Manager, and Selectmen’s Office. Additionally, we would like to thank Lynn Puorro of Sudbury TV, the Thursday Garden club, Phil James, Nicole Digenis, Jeanne and Mark Hubelbank, and Bev Anderson for their contributions. And finally, we are grateful for the financial support of the Friends of the Goodnow Library and the Goodnow Library Foundation.

Thank you for joining us in celebrating this great milestone and showing your support for its heritage and future, and check our website for more sesquicentennial events throughout the year.

See you at the library,

ESME

Books in Bloom Book Group

Friday, September 20, 10:30 am

Do you love to read? Do you enjoy arranging fresh flowers or silk flowers? Would you like to combine your two interests and share them with a group? We are a new Book Discussion/Flower Arranging group that meets on the 2nd Friday of each month at 10:30-12 noon in the Small Conference Room at the Goodnow Library. Our goal is to choose a book to discuss each month and then to interpret it with individual flower arrangements (fresh or silk). The arrangements are made by you at home and are brought to the meeting: they can be symbolic of the characters or themes in the book.

Books will be ordered by Maureen Hines, Group Leader, and will be available at the Goodnow Library. Just bring yourself, your creativity, and a sense of fun to the meeting. We will share a love of books and a love of arranging flowers--No expertise is needed. This program is free and sponsored by the Goodnow Library. Hope to see you there!

In September, we will read and discuss any biography of George and/or Ira Gershwin.

MOBILE APP REVIEWS FOR YOU

By Laura M. Bogart

"Handsent SMS" by Jacklin & Alenyu

Devices: Android and iPhone

Features: Replaces standard text messaging app.

Pros: Better grouping of text messages, more options if you go into advanced, and allows you to assign different mp3 as text alerts (in fact, you can use it to assign mp3s as ringtones that are otherwise not accessible from your default ringtone assigner), and assign pictures to contacts.

Cons: Sometimes the assigned ringtone will (seemingly randomly) switch back to default. Also, you have to know how to disable your default texting app, or they will both alert you and waste memory saving duplicate messages.

Overall: A vast improvement over the default texting app.

Recommended at 3.5 out of 4 stars.

Volunteer Opportunities

Would you be willing to assist the library in sorting and shelving its incoming materials delivery? We are looking for someone with basic computer skills, good organizational skills, and an interest in helping us serve the public in a vital way. The process takes about 3-4 hours start to finish, from the point when our delivery arrives on Fridays (usually between 11:30 and 12:30), and involves the following: emptying bins of library materials (usually between 10 and 20 bins) onto carts, processing materials which have been reserved by Sudbury library patrons, and filing all of these alphabetically on our reserve shelves. There is some standing, sitting, and moving of loaded, wheeled carts involved. Staff will train, and are available throughout the process to answer questions

Online Resource of the Month:

Lincoln Library of Essential Information

The Lincoln Library of Essential Information has been a trusted reference since 1924. Millions of users have relied on its authoritative articles to enrich their knowledge of the world and locate essential facts and figures.

It is one of the most affordable, comprehensive sources of research information for today's middle school, high school, and college student.

It's a great first and second source for a student's homework assignments, or for those who just want to enrich their knowledge of the world.

Special Children's Programs

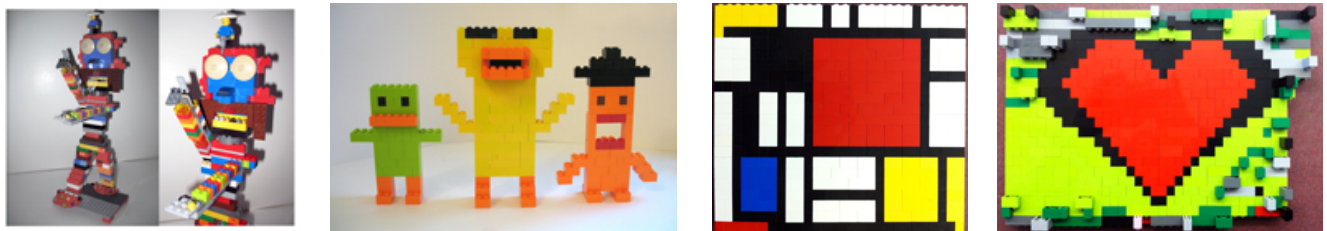

ECMS Traveling Museum of Fine Lego Arts Exhibit

On Display in the Goodnow Library Children's Room May 1-June 1, 2013

Reception May 30, 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Sixth and seventh graders from the Ephraim Curtis Middle School will have some very unique works of art on display in the Children's Room during the month of May. They are working in teams to create 2-D, pixilated reproductions of famous works of art in Lego bricks. Once the exhibit is completed, the works will be donated to a local children's hospital. This project exposes children to contemporary art and the idea of using commonplace items in new contexts to create visual and interactive experiences. It also provides an avenue to explore iconic works of art and for the students to give back to the community.

"This program is supported in part by a grant from the Sudbury cultural council), a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency."
