

Library Apprentice Group

For Tweens and Teens, Ages 11 and up

Join the Library Apprentice Group! At our bimonthly meetings we will increase literacy and technology skills through the planning and creation of video book reviews.

Meeting the first and third Thursdays of the month

5:00-6:00 PM, Historical Room

Registration required

First meeting: Thursday, January 15th

Second Meeting: Thursday, February 5th

During the first week, we will write and storyboard presentations. During the second week we will film and edit reviews. In the future, this group will experiment with different media forms such as green screen tech, whiteboard videos, podcasting, stop motion, and animated book reviews depending on the interest of the group members.

Pizza and fun always guaranteed!

Responsibilities of Participants:

- Evaluate library services for teens
- Advocate for the library
- Review & recommend books
- Plan & attend library programs
- Implement any librarian-approved service project for the library

Benefits for Participants:

- 2 service hours per month (1 hour/meeting)
- Food, Friends & Fun
- Learn new skills (literacy, technology, time management, organization, event planning, etc)
- Significant addition to resume/college application

Questions? Contact Teen Librarian, Mariah Manley, at manley@m@sudbury.ma.us

This program is sponsored by the Goodnow Library Foundation