Welcome To Goodnow!

Our hearts will go on...

April 15 marks the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic off the shores of Nova Scotia.

The Children's Dept will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic and the loss of so many of its passengers with a special book display this spring. Also, the third, fourth and fifth grade book groups will read stories and non-fiction about the event. A visitor will join the book groups to talk about her personal history as it relates to the Titanic. Mrs. Orian Greene is the great-granddaughter of Charles M. Hayes, who was lost on the Titanic, and his wife Clara who survived the event. Mrs. Greene will have stories and memorabilia to share with the children. Orian is a retired professor and Dean at Middlesex Community College.

The adult department will also feature and present screenings of A Night to Remember and Titanic.

Dates will be announced soon.

YA Book Discussion Group Takes a Break

Unfortunately, we've decided to cancel the Young Adult book group meetings.

We haven't had the participation we would like so we're going to take a break.

We hope to start back up in the fall. Please check back for updates.

Questions and suggestions from young adults and parents are always welcome. For this or for further information, please contact Krista at 978-443-1035 x4.

A Call to Young Artists

The Young Adult room will be displaying art from artists ages 12-18, who are interested in sharing their creative talent in the form of an art / craft exhibition. Displays of art and crafts by local individuals, groups of friends, private and public art class students in the community are encouraged.

Young Adult Exhibit Guidelines and Request Forms are available at the second floor reference desk. Any questions? Please contact Krista Armstrong-Moon, karmstrong-moon@minlib.net or Cathleen "CB" Bradley at studioceb@comcast.net

We got game!

The library now has a variety of games, PS2, Wii and Xbox, all rated T or under. Place your reserve today!

The Bookies Book Group

The "Bookies" met to discuss The Spell of the Sensuous by David Abram on Feb. 28. We had an engaging discussion of this richly woven interpretation of the disconnect of humans from the earthly realm.

We will be meeting again on Tuesday, April 17, to discuss Cakes and Ale, originally published in 1930 by British author W. Somerset Maugham. This little jewel of a novel is noted for its candor, warmth and humor and introduces Rosie, one of his most lovable and appealing characters.

For more information, please contact Randy LeSage at 978-443-1035 x 4
